ANACONDA STUDENTS RECEIVE UM SCHOLARSHIPS

MISSOULA —

Five students from Anaconda have been awarded scholarships from The University of Montana.

- Matt Johnson, a UM graduate student in business information technology education, received a $2,000 William C. Shreeve Education Administration Scholarship. Johnson is a 1996 graduate of Anaconda High School and the son of Theresa and Howie Johnson of Anaconda. The scholarship was established by Jean'ne Shreeve in honor of her brother, Dr. William C. Shreeve, who received a bachelor's degree and a master's degree in education from UM.
- Alexis Krueger, a 2009 graduate of Anaconda High School, received a $1,000 Access Scholarship. She will major in physical therapy at UM. Her parents are David Krueger and Teri Gochanour of Anaconda. Access scholarships are funded through the Student Assistance Foundation in Helena.
- Raymond Laslovich, a 2009 graduate of Anaconda High School, received a $1,000 William Enderlein Scholarship. He plans to major in business and computer science at UM. His parents are Nick and Sheila Laslovich of Anaconda. The scholarship was established in 1997 through the estates of Philip and Esther Enderlein in memory of their son. Esther received a home economics degree at UM in 1931. Philip was a longtime Montana Power Co. employee.
- Gina Salle, a 2009 graduate of Anaconda High School, received a $1,500 James and Olive M. Rector Memorial Scholarship. She plans to major in pharmacy at UM. Her parents are Ron and Jan Salle of Anaconda. The scholarship was established in 1967 by Ann Rector Williams in memory of her parents.
- Morgan Smith, a 2009 graduate of Anaconda High School, received a $1,000 James and Olive M. Rector Memorial Scholarship. She will major in business and pre-law at UM. Her parents are Kathie and Duane Smith of Anaconda.
